

URGES ELLISON TO END DEATH AVENUE EVILS

Attorney-General Jackson Wants N. Y. Central Tracks Removed.

(Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 8.—Attorney-General Jackson, in a letter sent to Corporation Counsel Ellison, of New York, to-day calls that official's attention to the complaint of the West Side Taxpayers' Association that frequent violations of the law are committed by the New York Central Railroad Company in blocking Tenth and Eleventh avenues by their trains and that the use of this avenue is attended with loss of time, Mr. Jackson says:
"It seems as though this practice would be a violation of your local ordinances which would present an effective remedy. Will you—if you have not done so—please make an investigation of this matter? If for any reason you find that you are without power to adequately deal with the situation, communicate with this department in reference thereto indicating in what respect we can be of assistance and service to you."
The next move by the Attorney-General, it is reported, will be to jack up Ellison on the Steinway terminal franchise, under which Belmont has claimed the right to construct a tunnel under the East River. It is asserted that the term of this franchise expired with the end of 1904.
The new Attorney-General is determined to make Mayor McClellan's Corporation Counsel keep an alert eye on the corporations and prosecute them in all cases of violation.
It is believed that he will do his duty, and that Ellison will step in and do it for him.

Republican Boss George Washington Aldridge has made an appointment with Gov. Hughes to urge the selection of Winslow M. Bond, of Rochester, as Superintendent of Public Works. Mead is now deputy to Supt. Franchot and was brought to Albany several years ago by Mr. Aldridge when he was Superintendent of Public Works.
Former Superintendent of Public Works John N. Partridge to whom Mead's benefit is being paid, is reported to give up all personal claims to office in order to land Mead and control the affairs of the millions of dollars of large canal contract. Despite the extraordinary efforts of Mead's friends to secure his appointment, McDougall, however, chances were regarded as strong as ever.

N. Y. Central Censured.
The New York Central Railroad was censured by a jury before Coroner Harburger, this afternoon, for failure to have proper lights on its freight trains and flagmen at the cross streets on Eleventh and Twelfth avenues, with a recommendation that laws be passed compelling the railroad to provide such safeguards.
A jury returned a verdict against the New York Central Railroad, twenty years old, had been killed by a New York Central freight train at Thirty-fifth street and Eleventh avenue. The accident occurred Nov. 2, and Cogan's head was cut off.

WIRE CABLE DRAWS BOY TO HIS DEATH

Alfred C. Eaton's Clothing Became Entangled in Machinery as He Worked.

Alfred C. Eaton, an elevator-boy employed at the plant of the Edison Company, Thirty-eighth street and First avenue, was crushed to death to-day between the wire cable and drum at the top of the elevator shaft. It was necessary to reverse the machinery to recover his body.

Young Eaton was seventeen years old. He lived with his parents at No. 23 East One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street. One of his duties was to oil the mechanism of the drum upon which the cables of the elevator wind.

A shriek from the boy and a sudden stoppage of the machinery told that something had happened to him shortly after he had gone to do this work to-day. Stephen Rice, the engineer, shot off the power, and with Peter Cornelli, an assistant, went to the top of the elevator shaft.

They found the body of Eaton jammed to a pulp between the wire cable and the drum. Cornelli and others held the body while Rice went down to the engine room and after reversing the machinery so that it might be taken out. The boy was drawn to his death by the gears of his jacket, which became entangled in the cable.

The arrival of an ambulance caused the circulation of a report that there had been an explosion in the plant and that several employees had been killed. The body of Eaton was removed to the East Thirty-fifth street station.

Dig Financial Concerns Underwrite Loan Which Is Quickly Disposed Of.

Proof of the increasing power of the Telephone Trust became evident to-day with the announcement that $25,000,000 worth of 5 per cent. notes of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company have been bought by J. P. Morgan & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co. of New York; Kidder, Peabody & Co. of Boston; and Harring Brothers and Morgan & Co. of London. These concerns are reported to have already disposed of nearly all they underwrote, foreign investors being heavy buyers.

LONDON BUREAU AMERICA 'EUTHANASIA' OF THE HEBREWS.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Israel Zangwill, in a statement made to Alexander Hinchey, of New York, who has been travelling abroad in the interest of Hebrew emigration to America, called that country the euthanasia of the Hebrew and Hebraism.
"The stronger force always absorbs the weaker," said Mr. Zangwill. "The Hebrew force has always been stronger in the past only when persecuted. In the social and Semitic of America lies the Hebrew's only hope."

TOGO PLEASES FRENCH WITH DAINTY GIFT.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—The people here are to-day as pleased as they are surprised by the gift which Admiral Togo has sent in response to the request for a souvenir made by the directors of the Marine Museum. Instead of some warlike trophy or reminder of the battle of the sea of Japan, the great fighter has sent nymphaea seedlings for the water mirrors in the inner court of the Petit Palais.
The dainty gift has been characterized as so thoroughly Japanese that it is ultra-Parisian. The Admiral is said to have the most beautiful nymphaea in Japan at his garden, and the delicate seedlings will be watched with anticipation as one of the attractions of the Petit Palais.

BELLEVUE NURSES ARE NOT TO STRIKE

False Report of Trouble and of Miss Jones's Resignation Laid to Discharged Men.

Bellevue Hospital is having troubles of its own in the way of gossip these days.
Miss Lulu Jones, Superintendent of the Bellevue Male Training School for Nurses, says she has been accused of everything, from resigning her position to appearing in a monkey costume at a masquerade dance.

The trouble seems to lie in the fact that some of the young men in the Training School don't fancy the idea of having a woman superintendent. Asked about the reported trouble in Bellevue, the resignation of Miss Jones and the possibility of a general strike of nurses, Dr. S. T. Armstrong, Superintendent of Bellevue, said:
"There is absolutely no truth in it. From time to time we are annoyed down here by stories which succeed in reaching the press. We suspect that they are started by former male nurses whom we were forced to discharge on account of their incompetency. They felt particularly hard toward Miss Jones, who only did her duty."
"As for any internal strife here, there is none. There may be a tendency among some to object to taking orders from a woman. Miss Jones has never resigned her position."

Miss Lulu Jones has been associated in masquerade parties at Bellevue as the nurse who caused comment by appearing at the Halloween party last autumn in monkey costume.
That story was made up out of whole cloth, said Miss Jones. "I never appeared in such a costume. We had a delightful little party here, and that was all there was to it."
"I have not resigned nor has there been any strike or talk of a strike. There is a shortage of nurses now owing to sickness, and the work is very hard, as our sick-patients are numerous."

Dr. Joseph B. Brissell, who is credited with having started the story of her resignation, is very angry about it. He never gave out any such report.

WHALEN BLOCKS RAILWAY'S PLAN TO GRAB LAND

Interborough Had Eyes on Valuable Plot for Extensive Terminal.

The Interborough Company was blocked to-day in an attempt to deprive the city of valuable rights and steel territory in the neighborhood of the new great Harlem terminal of the New York Central Railroad on the Harlem Ship Canal. They had planned to get absolute control of every foot of land between Broadway and Ninth avenue, from Two Hundred and Eighteenth street clear up to the ship canal, which would have been one of the most important terminal yards in the entire greater New York.

They were blocked by former Corporation Counsel Whalen, representing a Henry Morgenthau and John De Beas, who are themselves large tax-payers in the district.
The matter came up at a hearing before the local board of Washington Heights, and but for the alertness of Borough President Ahern would have gone through with a rush. He asked a few questions that brought up the opponents and made their contention clear that the move was an attempt to steal valuable rights from the city. Mr. Ahern at once put it over for a week to give time to look into the matter.

James A. Deering, expert authority on such matters, applied for permission on behalf of the Interborough Company to close Ninth avenue from Two Hundred and Eighteenth street south to Broadway, and between Broadway and Ninth avenue to close Two Hundred and Eighteenth, Two Hundred and Nineteenth and Two Hundred and Twentieth streets. This would leave the entire block of property, including a number of city squares, without streets and at the mercy of the company. As the entire district is a flat without a hill or a valley, the Interborough land is now owned by the Interborough Company. It was thought that the application could be put through the local board without any opposition, in spite of the fact that the district is destined to become one of the most important in the northern part of the borough.

The local board was held on the subject to-day. When the maps were spread out and the real inwardness of the attempt appeared, Borough President Ahern asked: "Is it possible that such a thing as this can go through this board and nobody oppose it?"

"I oppose it," said former Corporation Counsel Whalen, and immediately several other property-owners who were present entered an objection.
"Go ahead with the argument," said Mr. Ahern to Mr. Deering. "I have advertised this hearing and will hear you."

When Mr. Deering had finished his argument Mr. Ahern adjourned the further hearing until next Tuesday to become one of the most important opportunity to prepare their arguments, and in the mean time no action can be taken.
